BLESSINGS FROM PASTOR SCOTT BRADFORD

On September 11th, 2022, we will hold a dinner, talent show and fundraiser. In addition to the fun and fellowship, we are primarily raising funds for a new altar table and baptismal font are being designed by Roger Ellison of Fine Heirloom Furniture.

The Altar table will be a live edge wood piece designed by Roger from wood donated by Chad and Stacie Elkins. The Baptismal Font will have a wooden base built by Roger as well.

The bowl for the 11th Hour and a similar baptismal bowl for the Sanctuary will be blown glass bowls created by White Elk Glass in Colorado. A similar (as close to matching bowl) will be utilized for the Sanctuary to go with the existing Baptismal Font.

The 11th Hour Service began in the Fall of 2005. The current altar table was taken from a Sunday School class. This service has never had a Baptismal Font. I would suggest it is long overdue for them to have furniture designed and dedicated for their use.

A $3,000 initial cost has been paid by Endowment and we will be trying to raise about $12,000. These items in a design concept have been looked at by the Worship Committee and The Family Faith Formation team. Volunteers are working to bring this event together. It will be an evening to remember.

There will be a silent auction with tables of items for bidding. Even Laurel and I will be donating to the auction. Does anyone like Colorado? How about bidding on a five-night stay at our Pagosa Springs cabin?

You can support this project by:

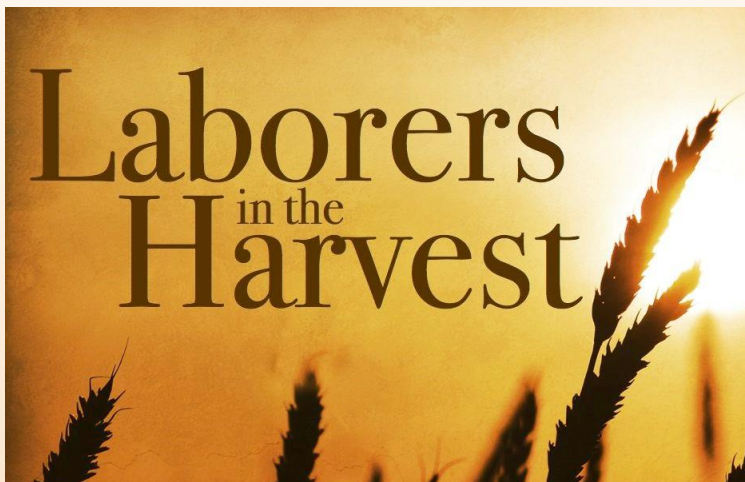

1. Praying!
2. Donate an auction item if you have one.
3. Planning on attending the meal and talent show.
4. Participate in the talent show.
5. Plan to bid on an auction item(s).

We pray you will help make this a great night.

Pastor Scott

Rev. Kristie Crisp - Directing Ministries Pastor

He said to them, "The harvest is bigger than you can imagine, but there are few workers. Therefore, plead with the Lord of the harvest to send out workers for his harvest." Luke 10:2 (CEB)

God keeps bringing me back to this scripture and after asking and asking, I believe I know why. Over the past several years, COVID has caused many to pull away from their normal routines, from going to church, to going out and being the Church, and many of the other ways we connected with one another in small groups. How long are we going to stay away and let the world pass us by? How long will we let the work of God go untended? Let our souls thirst for community, church family, and our need for some real soul tending.

I like the CEB translation of this scripture: "The harvest is bigger than you can imagine..." It states we must imagine the size of the harvest because we have not been in the field to see the size of the harvest. It is easy for us to say, "The children's ministry has plenty of volunteers" if we haven't been in the children's classes or attended a Wednesday Night session to see their need. Just talk to Chelsea, our Youth Faith Formation director and she will gladly tell you all the wonderful things the youth are doing and learning and how big the harvest is. . . she will also tell you how few are the workers (the volunteers). Ask to join them on a Sunday night or maybe offer to feed them, and you will quickly see how big this harvest is.

We are blessed to have such a big harvest to tend, to be called to such a time and place as right now in San Angelo and at First UMC. Between the children's ministry, youth ministry, from our downtown campus to our new Lake View Lighthouse Ministry, to the fun and exciting events the Family Faith Formation Team hosts, I will say it like the Bible says it. . . "The harvest is bigger than you can imagine," and we need more workers. God needs you!

As your days begin to fill with tasks or appointments or whatever life is throwing at you, I ask you to carve out some time to pray, no plead with me. . . the Lord of the harvest will send out workers for His harvest. I pray you hear Him asking you to be one of His workers.

Just Another Worker in the Field,

Pastor Kristie Crisp

ONE ANOTHER SHARING MINISTRY

The Gift of Giving Yourself . . . Priceless!

“Our greatest fulfillment lies in giving ourselves to others.” Henri Nouwen

The people within this wonderful church are exceptional for so many reasons! Each week my list of adjectives for this congregation seems to grow with newfound dimensions: talented, fun-loving, generous, willing, faithful, compassionate, prayer-warriors and humble servants. There is a commitment to God and to caring for one another that permeates the various ministries within this church in palpable ways. What a joy to serve alongside you!

You are a people who unselfishly share Servant-Hearts. The way I have seen this manifested most clearly in recent days has been through the overwhelming response to our new ministry “One Another”. There are now thirty-four people who have signed up to call, send cards or visit with those who aren’t able to attend the church functions in this season of their lives. I am astounded at this gracious response to intentionally care for the elderly in our congregation. Thank you!

In Colossians, Paul adds a few more adjectives to the list. He writes, “Therefore, as God’s chosen people, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience.” (Colossians 3:12).

What an honor it is to be the hands and feet of Christ in our world. There are so many around us who face daily needs. Amazingly, it is part of God’s plan to use people like you and me to help meet those needs and share His love. A phone call, a plate of cookies or brief visit can literally make someone’s day. It costs us a few minutes. It can mean the world to the one who receives such loving kindness!

God might have unplanned “ministry moments” for you this month. May you be surprised with His blessings as you find new “adventures” to make a difference for others. If you would like to be a part of the One Another ministry, please contact me. Giving of ourselves in even small ways will enrich your life in great measure. I cannot explain the equation of how this works, but I have found it to be true over and over again!

May God continue to add new fruitful adjectives to the list as we try to describe the gifts and graces within this church. “And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.” (Hebrews 13:16).

Thank you for the creative ways you will bless others this month with the gift of you!

Summer is officially over, and I am sad. We had an absolute blast, and I am not ready to see it end. Our summer was full of multiple poolside Bible Studies and many field trips to the movies, bowling, and even Schlitterbahn! We were also able to attend camp where we had five of our students accept Jesus Christ for the first time, several recommit their lives to Christ, and three who accepted their call to ministry. Talk about an amazing summer! We ended it with a Pool Party at the Harrison's house.

We did not just play this summer. We dug deep into scripture where we learned more about Jesus and the plans that He has for us. Our faith grew deeper; our biblical knowledge expanded. It does not get any better than a summer full of Jesus and fun. September looks like it is going to be a great month! We begin Wednesday night classes on the 7th where we will study Don't Believe Your Eyes by illusionist Brock Gill. In addition, several of our youth will be "talent" at Dinner and a Show on the 11th. It is going to be a great night! I can't wait to see what September brings.

Hello Pastor Scott Bradford,

Thank you for your partnership with CPS for community children in need. You and your church have been a blessing to the children, families and even caseworkers in so many ways and have made such an impact.

Child Watch Meals: Sometimes we have a youth who stays overnight due to different circumstances until a safe placement can be located and during this time they feel as though they have little control over everything spiraling in their lives. Your church allows the youth on child watch to choose their daily dinner meal during the week and it is the excitement of their day! Not only does it give them back some of control over their lives as they get to choose what they want, but also the much-needed comfort of eating foods they love and have good memories with. Brenda, (and previously Sherri), are amazing in being the volunteer coordinators for this. In May, we had a teen on child watch who teared up when he knew he was going to graduate. Without family here, it was CPS workers and some FUMC volunteers who attended his graduation party at the CPS office and FUMC volunteers provided a very kind gift. He got the message he mattered and had support from our community. His smile was priceless.

Care Portal: There are times when a caseworker lists a family need on the portal. Most recently it was a family where the mother had worked hard to get to a place of reunification with her children, (a few weeks away), but then bed bugs invaded. . She spent all she had getting the home ready for them, but she did not have enough to cover this. You played a big role in this family's reunification by helping make it possible. I cannot put into words the relief provided to the mother and the happiness of the children. This is their world. Helpers like you reminded them that they are worthy and loved. This is only one of so many families which you and your church have impacted.

Thank you on behalf of the children, families and caseworkers as well. You help plant the seeds today in these children in need so that it changes the way they remember this time to a more positive one, therefore helps lower their trauma and gives them a chance for a brighter future. As a community, we are helping break the cycle of abuse and neglect for a better future for all.

Invitation: Please extend an open invitation to you and anyone you would like to join you to visit the CPS office and see the positive changes being made because your partnerships. You make such an impact I would like for you to see the behind the scenes. Anytime that works best for you, even if later this fall or the spring. I wanted to reach out and say thank you. Your dedication and stewardship does not go unnoticed. We are grateful for you, the child watch dinner team and First United Methodist. If at some point you can come by, please let me know and we can plan a day that works best for you.

Thank you again and blessings your way,
