REV. SCOTT BRADFORD – Senior Pastor

Lake View Lighthouse has been significantly renovated over the last three years and we are ramping up our programs and usage of the facilities.

We recently held a Parents and pastries event with Goliad Elementary. Beginning in April the Wesley Nurse and volunteers are launching a nutritional afterschool program called Monday Munchies and this will lead into our Lighthouse Kids Eat Free summer feeding program.

We will soon be working on one of the final areas needing attention which is a food pantry and our children's clothing closet continues to be in use. I'm also thinking we can use some space to store some often-needed furniture items for families in need: beds; dressers; tables and chairs; washer and dryers.

We have been fortunate to receive two years of grants from Methodist Healthcare Ministries (MHM). While much of this grant has been for Capital improvement, we also received for 2024 operating and program expenses to underwrite the food and nutritional ministry. One of our main goals in establishing LVLH was to be a missional outpost on the North side of town and bring these services to what is often called a food resource desert.

What do we need?

Volunteers to help staff Monday Munchies; Kid's Eat Free and eventually work with food pantry. Please message Sherrie Walker or Lesa Parry about involvement.

Furniture donations: In useable condition beds; dressers; tables and chairs; washer and dryers. If you have these serviceable items to donate, please contact Pastor Scott.

Monetary donations: We will still have a small area to paint and put in flooring to complete renovation of the entire building. Any donations can be marked Lake View Lighthouse.

Thank you for making this dream a vision that has come to reality.

Pastor Scott

REV. JIM NOBLE – Associate Pastor

Hello Church!

I'm writing this a little early, so it is done before my surgery on the 23rd. Surgery is kind of a funny thing if you think about it. Sometimes it is correcting flaws in the operation of parts of the body. I have had many hernia surgeries, for instance. Or, for example, an ablation aims to fix the nerves around the heart so that the heart beats in the proper rhythm.

Sometimes, though, doctors determine we don't need some of our parts. Of course, in the case of cancer, malicious parts doing harm are removed. Sometime tonsils break bad and must be removed, or the gallbladder (mine is long gone), or the appendix (what does it really do anyway?), or teeth, or any number of things.

As we age, the number of good parts dwindles! My upcoming surgery is because a few spots in my colon have decided to become infected frequently enough that they are growing antibiotic resistant and therefore becoming more dangerous to my continuing life.

All of this made me think of Psalm 90, a Psalm of Moses. I can scarcely think of any human who has done more than Moses. I encourage you to read the whole Psalm, it's a plea/reflection on the fleeting nature of life and our search for purpose. From Moses!

Psalm 90: 10-12 "We live at best to be seventy years old, maybe eighty, if we're strong. But their duration brings hard work and trouble because they go by so quickly. And then we fly off. Who can comprehend the power of your anger? The honor that is due you corresponds to your wrath. Teach us to number our days so we can have a wise heart.

Verse 12 has always grabbed me. Teach us to number our days. In my slightly educated opinion, I believe Moses is asking God to help him spend his time wisely.

That made me think of the concept of a time audit. Some great leaders I've known do a time audit of themselves at least once a year. I can't say that I have. But perhaps I should. I know I spend an inordinate amount of time watching sports, though that brings me joy. Marie Kondo should approve, then, right? But other things...like social media, silly nonsensical games on my phone, mindless television, and the like should possibly face the chopping block.

Much like a doctor might examine your body and say, be gone gallbladder!, perhaps we should do the same with the time we spend. We only get so much time. Having said that, I do not really want to, because it means making difficult choices. I would love to hear if you are more successful at this than I am. Hey, Moses struggled with it, so we are in some decent company.

Happy auditing!

It's Time to Laugh Awhile

It is (sadly!) common knowledge that I struggle with getting my tongue tangled while giving announcements during the opening of our worship time. Thankfully, our ever-gracious congregation (and Pastor Scott) just join in the laughter as I try to rescue myself from the abyss of being so appallingly human. Laughter is the best medicine – and we all should do it more! Laughing at ourselves is a delightful way to not take ourselves so seriously.

During a visit with Phil George (who always makes me laugh!), he introduced me to a book by Mardi Woodling that has a section on church bulletin bloopers through the years. While I don't have room to include many of them, I hope these will bring a smile to your day!

- * Bertha Belch, a missionary from Africa will be speaking tonight at Calvary Memorial Church in Racine. Come tonight to hear Bertha Belch all the way from Africa.
- * Miss Charlene Mason sang, "I Will Not Pass this Way Again," giving obvious pleasure to the congregation.
- * Ladies do not forget the rummage sale. It's a chance to get rid of those things not worth keeping around the house. Don't forget your husbands.
- * The peacemaking meeting scheduled for today has been cancelled due to conflict.
- * Irving Benson and Jessie Carter were married on October 24 in the church. So ends a friendship that began in their school days.
- * Barbara remains in the hospital and needs blood donors for more transfusions. She is also having trouble sleeping and requests tapes of Pastor Jack's sermons.
- * Eight new choir robes are currently needed, due to the addition of several new members and the deterioration of some older ones.
- * For those of you who have children and don't know it, we have a nursery downstairs.
- * The Ladies of the Church have cast off clothing of every kind. They may be seen in the basement on Friday afternoon.
- * The pastor would appreciate if the ladies of the congregation would lend him their electric girdles for the pancake breakfast next Sunday morning.
- * Low Self Esteem Support Group will meet Thursday. Please use the back door.
- * A bean supper will be held on Tuesday evening in the church hall. Music will follow.

OK – that's enough for now. Keep smiling and laughing. Our world needs it!

Pastor Cyndi

Cheers

The Cheers Class will continue their pre-Lent study, The Story, led by John Walker. The Story sweeps you into the unfolding progression of Bible characters and events from Genesis to Revelation. The Chi Rho Class is studying Don't Look Back by Bible teacher, international speaker, activist, and bestselling author Christine Caine. This study will motivate you to stop looking back, get unstuck, and keep moving forward into God's promises and purpose for your life. It is being taught by Giovanna Lecroy.

Harmony

The Harmony class is currently studying "Holy Roar", led by Evelyn Coley. In the Psalms, there are seven Hebrew words that are translated into the English word praise, each of which represents a different aspect of what it means to truly praise God. ## Journey

The Journey Class is finishing up the book of Jude and will begin Revelation led by David Huckaby. ins.

Seekers

The Seekers Class is using the NOOMA video curriculum, by Rob Bell. NOOMA is a series of short films that explore our world from a perspective of Jesus. NOOMA is an invitation to search, question, and join the discussion. Led by various class members.

NEW GRIEF SHARE GROUP starting June 3rd thru August 26th

No matter what the circumstances, grief is a painful, confusing process. This group is a safe, welcoming place where people understand the difficult emotions of grief. At this 13-week support program, you will discover what to expect in the days ahead and what is "normal" in grief. Since there are not neat, orderly stages of grief, you will learn helpful ways of coping with grief, in all its unpredictability – and gain support with each step. At weekly meetings, you will view a video featuring respected counselors, pastors, and healthcare professional on grief related topics, and also relatable personal stories of grief. Afterwards, class members are allowed time to talk, share support, and personally apply what they learned in the video. Members receive a book for home use filled with exercises in navigating their personal grieving process including loneliness, anxiety, sadness, anger, regret, and more. The group will meet at 5:30 in the Journey Classroom. Contact the church office for more information.

Bishop Nathan Amooti

If you missed the Bishop, hopefully you can catch him preaching on the church YouTube site. With a smile that warms your heart and a hearty laugh, his slight accent echoed some incredible points (five to be exact) as he expounded on John 20:19-23 on Sunday, April 21st. First Church hosted a reception in the newly upgraded Parlor for the Bishop for a meet and greet. At the late service, Bishop Amooti was presented with a new stole to remind him of his visit to San Angelo.

“On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jewish leaders, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you!” After he said this, he showed them his hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord. Again, Jesus said, “Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you.” . . . “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive anyone’s sins, their sins are forgiven. . .”

I took notes simply because he asked us to do so. These are points about the character of Jesus and the peace he offers to all of us.

1. Jesus does not condone revenge – If someone bites you, don't bite them back or bite them back harder. There is no peace in this.
2. Peace comes with forgiveness. Once sins are forgiven, they are forgiven. No conditions.
3. Jesus is generous and gives the disciples (and us) peace and the Holy Spirit.
4. Love unconditionally. Period.
5. Jesus does not talk about the past. The past is gone. Move forward.
